It is important for voter turnout that local and state voting policies and procedures are public knowledge. Often, voters do not know where, when and how to vote. Public awareness campaigns can encourage voter participation and make important information ubiquitous, thereby reducing barriers at the ballot box. Below are examples of how to spread awareness about voting policies and procedures in your community.

They give up on a chance to choose leaders and representatives who will do things that are important to them. Nobody can force a citizen to vote. But many citizens do vote, because voting lets them tell the government what they want it to do.

Being a voter is associated with better health outcomes, reduced unemployment, lower recidivism rates and the like. Because many nonprofits have social missions of education, service and social uplift, encouraging voting and other forms of participation is a natural part of every nonprofit's mission.

Right to vote ensures a DEMOCRATIC AND RESPONSIBLE government. 5. Right to vote encourages civic consciousness because it encourages political participation, and the citizens will thus keep tabs and checks on the political leaders and the government

The purpose of every government is to develop and implement various policies for the benefit of its citizens. It also enables the person with the right to question the government about issues and clarifications. Voting is the way to express the opinion of a citizen in a democratic nation.

In our Institute we conducted an event on 13th feb 2019 of No Voters to be left Behind of one day Event in our Campus by conducting voters awareness programme with the help of NSS Volunteers of NSS Unit SJMIT.
