Introduction:

The VTU Youth Fest is an annual event that brings together college students from across the state to showcase their talents and skills in various competitions. This year's event was held from March 29th to April 1st, 2023, at Nagarjuna College of Engineering, Bengaluru. The fest saw participation from 78 colleges from across the state, and our college students actively participated in four events: skit, mime, rangoli, and elocution. The following report details our students' performances and the overall organization of the event.

Skit Competition:

The skit competition was held on the third day of the fest, and our college students participated with great enthusiasm. The theme of the skit was "comedy" titled 'Pandralli Jatra Mhotsava' and our students depicted the importance of Social cohesion, Cultural preservation, Economic activity, Religious significance, Entertainment through comedy manner as 'Jatre' is an important festival that plays a significant role in the cultural and social life of rural communities in India. These festivals provide an opportunity for people to come together, to celebrate, to preserve their cultural heritage, and to enjoy themselves. Jatres are an integral part of village life, and they help to maintain the vibrancy and richness of rural communities. The skit was well-written and well-executed, and the audience appreciated it..

Mime Competition:

The mime competition was held on the third day of the fest, and our college students once again put up a great show. The theme of the mime was "Patriotism," and our students depicted the Importance of National Identity, Sacrifice and Service, Courage and Bravery, Unity and Harmony, Responsibility towards Nation. The performance was powerful and impactful, and the judges appreciated the message conveyed.

Rangoli Competition:

The rangoli competition was held on the first day of the fest, and our college students participated with great creativity. The theme of the rangoli was "she need Justice" and our students depicted various shades of women on their fight towards Empowerment, Equality, Justice, Support and Change in their rangoli. The rangoli was intricate and beautifully designed, and the judges appreciated the attention to detail.

Elocution Competition:

The elocution competition was held on the last day of the fest, and our college students once again put up a great show. The topic for the elocution was "Education," and our students spoke about importance of education, access to education, the role of teachers, innovation and creativity in education, and lifelong learning. Such a competition can be an effective medium to inspire and motivate people to recognize the value of education and to work towards improving the education system. The speeches were well-researched and well-delivered, and the judges appreciated the clarity of thought and expression.

Organization of the Event:

The VTU Youth Fest 2023 was well-organized, and the accommodation and transport facilities provided by the organizers were excellent. The event was held at Nagarjuna College of Engineering, which provided a spacious and comfortable venue for the various competitions. The organizers ensured that the events started on time and were conducted smoothly. The judges for the various competitions were well-qualified and experienced, and they provided constructive feedback to the participants. Overall, the event was a great success, and our college students had a memorable experience.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, our college students actively participated in four events - skit, mime, rangoli, and elocution - at the VTU Youth Fest 2023, and they performed exceptionally well in all of them. The events were well-organized, and the accommodation and transport facilities provided by the organizers were excellent. The fest provided an excellent platform for college students to showcase their talents and skills, and our students had a memorable experience participating in it.
